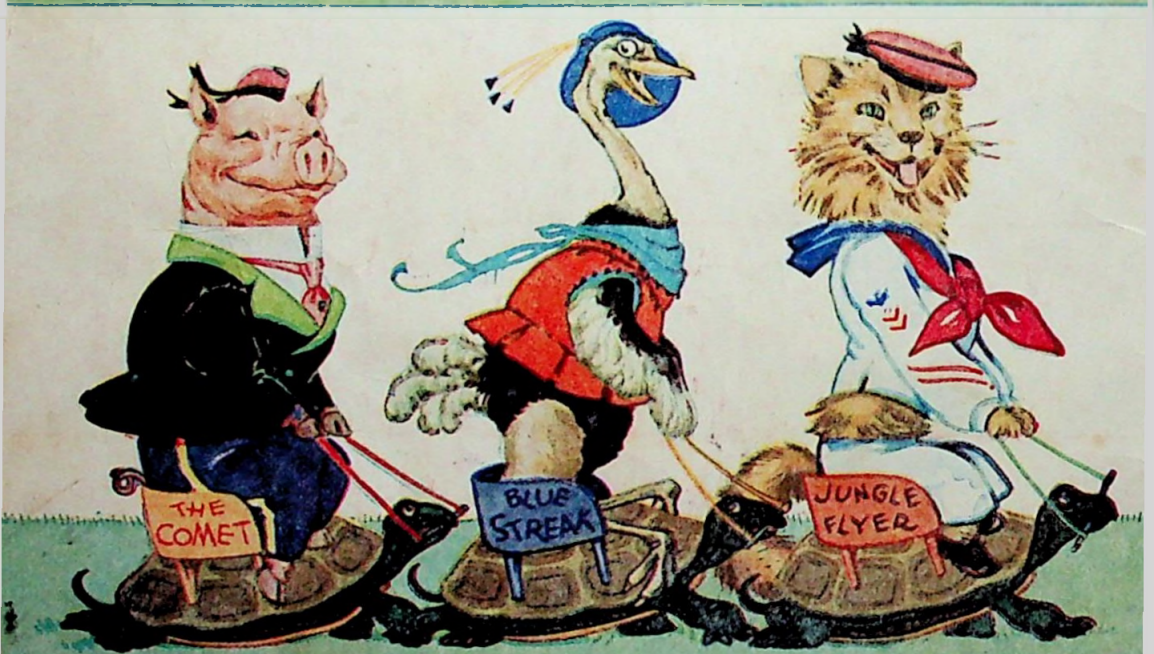
Kellogg's
FUNNY
JUNGLELAND
MOVING-PICTURES
Kellogg's
CORN
FLAKES

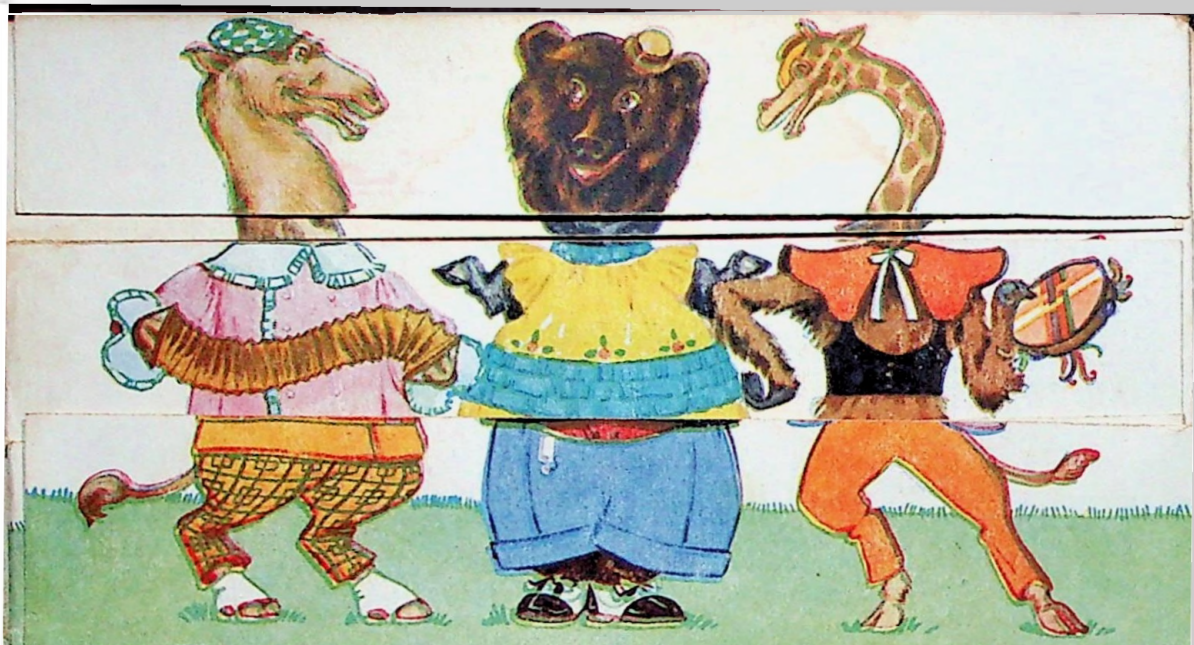
We blow our bubbles in the air,
But the Turtle cannot keep his there.



We ride our steeds at a dizzy pace,
But the Cat is sure to win the race.

The Owl is leader of this band.
He never fails to get a hand.

The Deer can play a speedy game,
But the Lioness puts him to shame.



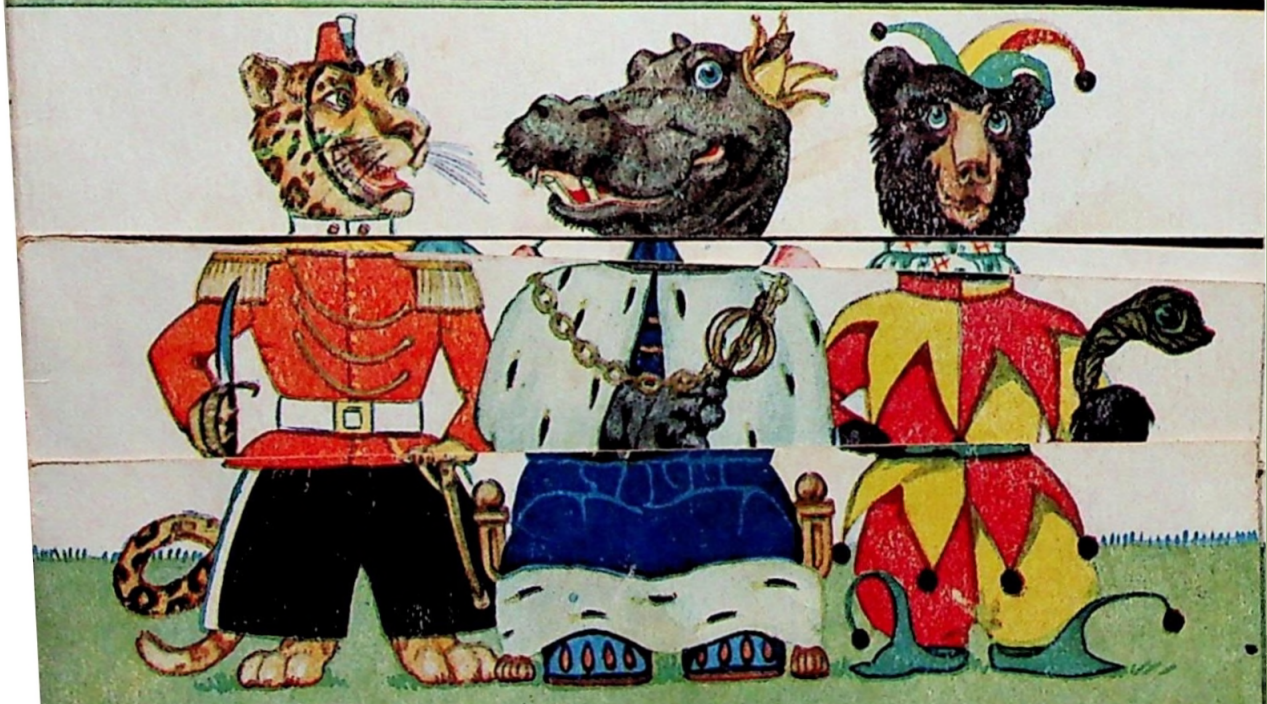
The Giraffe and Camel, a jovial pair,
Are taking a stroll with the Cinnamon Bear.

The reason we're such a happy bunch
Is because we had some Pep for lunch.

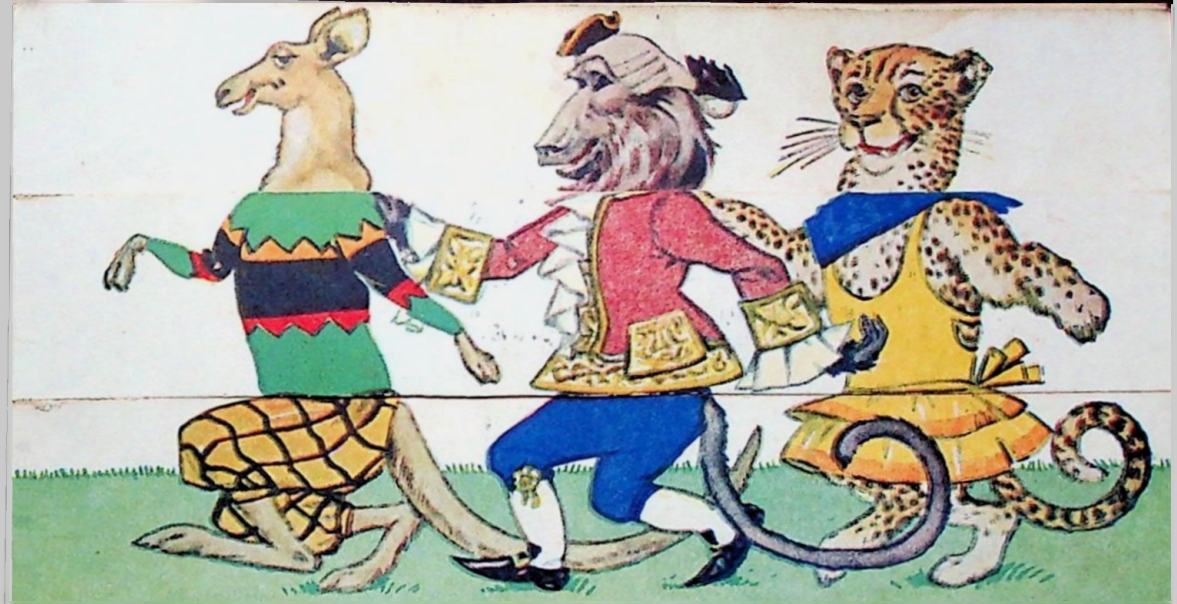
Here we go, all three in step,
Shopping for Corn Flakes, Rice Krispies and Pep.

With a gay Senorita and sweet little miss,
What chance has a bashful boy like this?

The concertina and tambourine
Inspire a dance you've never seen.

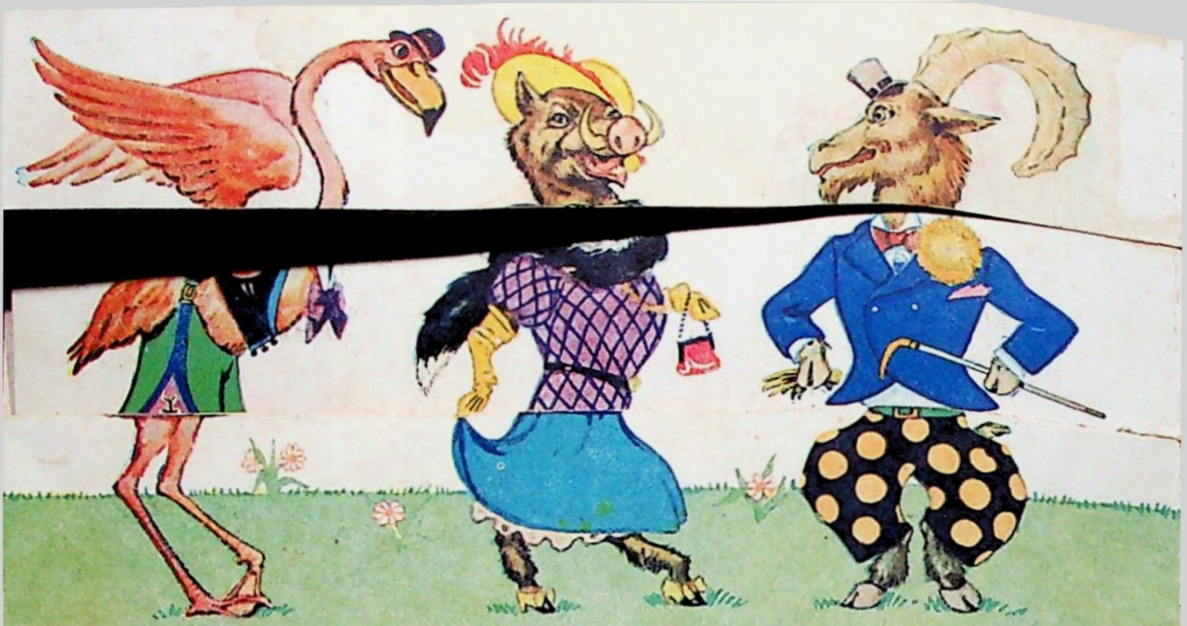


General Tiger and Jester Bear
Attend the Queen at the Animal Fair.



Hiking suits the Kangaroo,
He sets the pace for the other two.

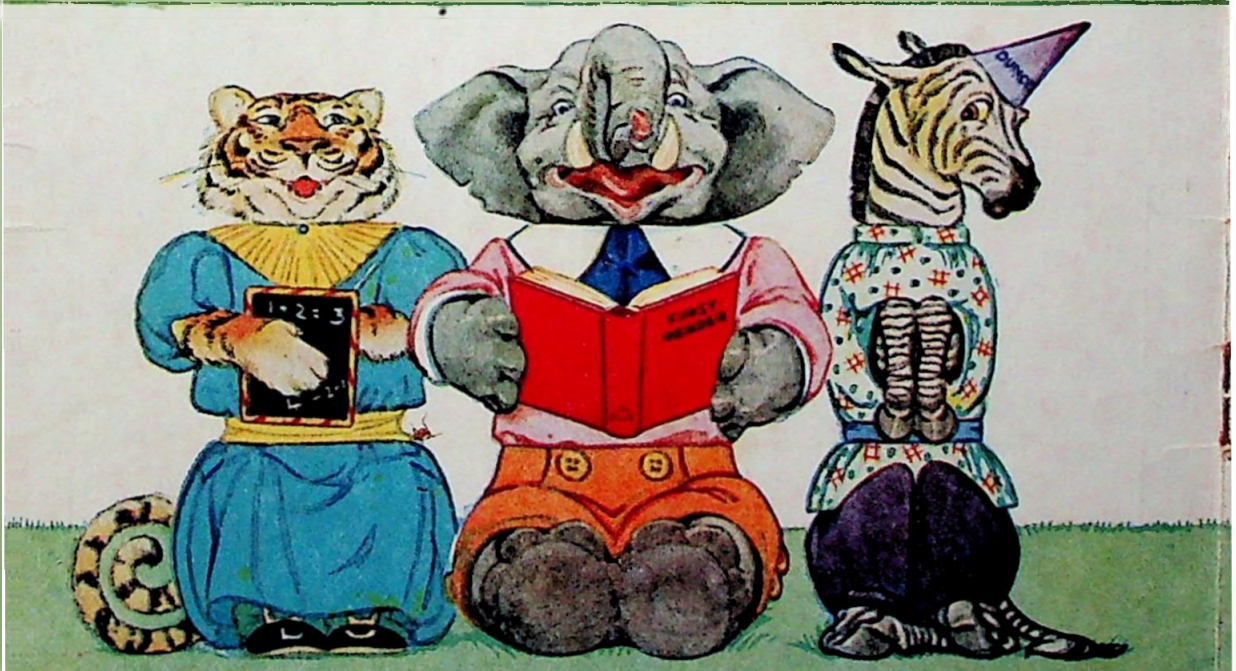
When the Donkey starts to bray
Even his dearest friends won't stay.



A lady would surely be hard to please
Who wouldn't admire cavaliers like these.

This trio is rare, but it seems to me
The Horse and Cow are all off key.

Which is the best? We can't agree!
We'll simply have to try all three.



The Elephant and Tiger are very bright,
But the poor little Zebra gets nothing right.

Kellogg's
CORN FLAKES
·OVEN-FRESH·
FLAVOR-PERFECT
W. K. Kellogg
Kellogg's
PEP
BRAN FLAKES
WHEAT
Kellogg's
RICE KRISPIES
crackles IN CREAM
It's a toss-up which to eat,
Kellogg's Foods you just can't beat
Always good, Rice, Corn, or Wheat.
NO. 211 COPR. 1932, KELLOGG'S, BATTLE CREEK, MICH.
PRINTED IN U.S.A.